

We've been looking for you

Are you a small business with big ambitions? A pioneer with a brave idea, a growth-maker that needs longer-term investment or a founder that is ready to de-risk?

For the business that you are or about to become, we want you to consider us as your capital provider.

Backing ambition in the regions.

Growth is a journey and the level of risk and investment will be very different along the way.

If you are a regional business looking to exit in a shorter time horizon or want to keep growing over the long-term, we can draw upon various pools of capital across our asset classes to provide you with the appropriate levels of cash at the right time.

“

Ambitious for your success.
